DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office action is in response to the replies filed on May 6, 2004 and on August 11, 2004.
2. New claims 17 through 21 remain in the application.

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The first species or the embodiment described in lines 4 through 10 on page 3 of the specification and characterized by the gas reservoir being designed as a bellows.

The second species or the embodiment described in lines 12 through 19 on page 3 of the specification and characterized by a bypass line being provided between the exhaust-gas inlet and the exhaust gas outlet.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Art Unit: 3753

Claims 17 through 19 and 21 correspond to the first species.

Claims 17, 20, and 21 correspond to the second species.

The following claim(s) are generic: claim 17.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the first species lacks the bypass line of the second species, and the second species lacks the bellows of the first species.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
